CASE NO. C17-21513

On October 9th, 2017, at approximately 11:22 AM, the Sheboygan Police Department and the Sheboygan Fire Department responded to 925 High Avenue, in Sheboygan, to investigate a report of a shooting. The investigation revealed that the 29 year- old male resident was attempting to clean his 9 mm handgun. During the cleaning process, the victim pointed the gun towards the ground to clear the action and accidentally discharged it, striking himself in the right ankle. The resident was transported to Memorial Hospital with non-life threatening injuries. The Sheboygan Police Department will not be seeking any criminal charges in connection with the incident.
