On 05/04/19, Sheboygan Police responded to a report of gun shots in the 1000 block of Superior Avenue, in Sheboygan. Investigating officers learned that a private residence in that block had been struck. No one was injured in the incident.

With the assistance of neighbors in the area, a suspect vehicle was identified leading to the identification of two individuals responsible for the shooting. The ongoing investigation revealed that the incident was due to a disagreement over past drug transactions. As result, arrest warrants have been issued for the following individuals:
