On April 3rd, 2020 at approximately 12:46 am the Sheboygan Police Department received numerous calls about gunshots near N 11th St. and Logan Ave. When officers arrived they discovered evidence that three shots had been fired by an individual into the front of a home located there. The suspect is a 13 year old Sheboygan boy who is being referred to the District Attorney's Office for the charge of Recklessly Endangering Safety. The suspect was placed into secure custody at the Sheboygan County Juvenile Detention Center. Officers continue to investigate this matter and are still looking into the motive involved in this crime. The Sheboygan Police take any crime involving a weapon very seriously and encourage citizens who own firearms to secure them at all times when not in use.
