FTC v. E.M. Systems & Services

Dear [REDACTED]

The enclosed check is your share of a court settlement.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) is sending refunds to people who paid E.M. Systems & Services for debt relief. The company charged an average fee of $1000 to lower people's credit card interest rates. According to the FTC, the company failed to provide the promised results and refused to give refunds.

E.M. Systems & Services used many other business names, including Administrative Management & Design, Satisfied Services Solutions, Empirical Data Group Technologies, Epiphany Management Systems, and KLS Industries.

According to our records, you are eligible for a payment from this settlement.

Please cash your check before July 26, 2021. After this date, your bank might not accept the check. If you need to request a new check, please call us at 800-239-6082, or email us at Info@EMRefund.com.

You can find additional information at FTC.gov/Refunds.

If you have questions, please contact us at 1-800-239-6082.

Sincerely,

Epiq
